I Nature of the tasks:

The Civil Justice unit promotes the creation of a genuine European area of justice in civil and commercial matters. We are in charge of European civil justice, both in the commercial and in the family law area, in particular dealing with the European regulations on jurisdiction, recognition and enforcement in civil and commercial matters and on applicable law.

The expert would be involved in ensuring the secretariat of the European Judicial Network in civil and commercial matters (EJN-civil), which includes tasks relating to the management of the Network, in particular the planning of the work of the EJN, the planning and organisation of meetings, information and visibility policies, websites and evaluation. The Network is an essential implementation and enforcement tool for efficient judicial cooperation between Member States in civil and commercial matters. The expert would also be involved in the steering of the work of the EJN and its various working groups in order to ensure the practical relevance and the high quality of deliverables.

The work of the expert will in any event also involve a variety of tasks such as supporting the control of the application of existing legislation by Member States' authorities, contributing to the preparation of new policies and initiatives and corresponding with citizens.

We offer an activity for an expert with broad interests and knowledge in the area of civil justice cooperation. Our field attracts a lot of policy attention as it serves the European citizens in their daily life. The tasks of the expert include:

- handling of the secretariat of the European Judicial Network in civil and commercial matters (EJN-civil);
- developing new policies and strategies relating to civil justice cooperation in the field of civil, commercial and the family law area ;
- follow up of any new legislative proposals through the inter-institutional decision-making process;
- monitoring the correct application of the EU civil justice law acquis and responding proactively to implementation issues surrounding already adopted measures.

Furthermore, the expert will be expected to contribute to the unit's general work, by preparation of briefings, contributing to speeches, preparing replies to correspondence with citizens, to parliamentary questions, petitions and dealing with complaints and infringements. The expert will participate in internal meetings within the Commission, meetings of the European Judicial Network in civil and commercial matter, meetings in other European institutions concerning the work of the unit, as well as external meetings.

2 Main qualifications:

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria are to be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil one of them will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience : at least three years' experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which can be regarded as equivalent to those of function groups AD;
- Seniority : at least one year by your employer, that is having worked for an eligible employer (as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision) on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. An SNE from a non-member country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

- diploma: University Degree in Law

- professional experience:

The activity requires a significant experience in a national administration, in the development of legislative and judicial policies in the fields concerned as well as in preparation of legislation. Experience in the European Judicial Network in civil and commercial matters, the negotiating process in civil and commercial law, either at EU level or in international fora such as the Hague Conference would be an asset. Excellent knowledge of European and international instruments in the field of international private law as well as of civil procedures at national level. Flexibility to work in all questions covered by the unit's policy area. Good drafting skills.

- language(s) necessary for the performance of duties:

Fluency in English both orally and in writing. Very good knowledge of French. Would be an asset.

The ability to work in a team

3 Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4 Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm.

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security.

Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the secondment may be cancelled.

5 Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B4. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts).

Data subjects may exercise their right of access to data concerning them and the right to rectify such data by applying to the controller, in accordance with Article 13 of the Regulation on the processing of personal data. The candidate may send complaints to the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu.

To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
